

It would be unconscionable to sacrifice the integrity of our priceless MF and HF bands (2.0 to 30 MHz) with the implementation of broadband-over-power-line (BPL) technology in the United States of America. The interference that it would cause to skywave communications is not acceptable, and its promoters must find a better solution.

Sincerely yours,

David S. Forsman (WA7JHZ)
Lewiston, Idaho 83501-4607
shampoo@syringa.net